March 6-12, 2022 is Ohio 4-H Week. What will your club do to celebrate? Encourage your members to talk with their friends about joining 4-H!

Happy 120th birthday, Ohio 4-H! 4-H started in Springfield Township in Clark County in 1902. This year we celebrate 120 years of 4-H in Ohio. Join us at our Spring Recognition program where we will kick off the celebration!

Spring Recognition and Kick Off, Happy 120th Birthday, Ohio 4-H: will be held Sunday, March 6, 2pm, Radiant Lighthouse. We will be recognizing outstanding officer books, leadership and achievement award winners, honor clubs, premier members, county medal winners, and more! Hands Across the Darke will be collecting items for Rustic Hope. If you would like to donate, they will be accepting diapers, wipes, and non-perishable food items. Also, each club is asked to donate one or two non-perishable items for door prizes. Door prizes can be brought to the Extension Office ahead of time or brought to Radiant the day of kick off (preferred). Emails were sent to organizational advisors notifying them as to which officers will be recognized.

Remember, the 4-H Committee voted to waive the county activity fee for 2022. Your club may still charge club fees, but don’t collect the county activity fee.
