

BLUE ANGELS 4-H CLUB MARCH

The Blue Angels held their March 22nd zoom meeting at 6:30. Raylea Richards, called the meeting to order. Pledges were said. Roll call was taken. Alivia Addis shared devotions with the club on “Why Did Jesus have to die?” Ella Williams read the secretary’s report from the last meeting. It was approved first by Daniel Williams and 2nd by Evan Addis. Alivia Addis gave the treasure’s report. It was 1st approved by Daniel Williams and 2nd by Evan Addis.

The community service report was update on Trash Bash for 2021. Blake Addis will pick up the supplies from the fairgrounds on April 17th then each team captain will be responsible for getting their bags. The team leaders will need to set up time and place to meet the weekend of April 17th and 18th. Forms from trash bash will need to be completed and submitted to Blake after trash bash.

There was no health and safety report. Old business was a reminder to make sure to enroll your projects online by April 1st. If you have problems or questions please feel to contact Rhonda Williams. You can either go online to get your project books or make arrangements to pick them up from the Extension office. There will be no dues this year.

New Business- the club welcomed new members. Sharon Harpest announced that the Blue Angels were a Gold Club in 2020. The club had 3 officers receive outstanding books: Ella Williams for her secretary book and historian book. Alivia Addis, treasure book and Evan Addis, for reporter. Great job officers!!

As of right now they are planning on having 4-H camp this year June 21- 24. A final decision will be made soon. If they can’t have in person they are looking into other options. There will be a Clover Confidence offered to 5th – 8th grader females. It will be held virtually on Tuesday at 6:00pm-7:30pm, April 6-27 and May 4-11. There is a limit to 15 people. Make sure to register: go.osu.edu/2021cloverconfidence. For the latest news please look at the e-clover every Friday online.

The meeting was adjourned 1st by Daniel Williams and 2nd Evan Addis. The next zoom meeting will be April 26th at 6:30.

Respectfully submitted,

Evan Addis
