

The Versailles Busy Beavers 4-H Club held their April meeting at 6:00 pm on Sunday, April 11, 2021, at the K of C Hall.

The meeting was called to order by president Madyson Hess. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Christopher Delzeith and the 4-H Pledge was led by Lydia Ward. Roll call was taken with thirty-six members and six guests present at the meeting.

It has been announced that Poultry Days will be held June 11-13. There are also no county or club fees this year for the Busy Beavers. 4-H Camp will be held June 21-24, more information will come soon whether it will be virtual or in person. The Junior Fair King and Queen pageant will be on July 20th, with the interviews on July 19th.

Demonstrations were done by Isley DeMange, who showed the Busy Beavers how to take care of a hamster, Ben Brewer showed the members different types of chicken eggs, and Emily Delzeith taught the members how to read a bracket.

The next meeting will be Sunday, May 2, 2021, at 6 p.m. and the location is to be determined.
